ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The National Conference on “Lokayukta as a Constitutional Guardian Against Corruption: Prospects and Challenges” aims to provide a platform for academicians, legal professionals, research scholars, and students to deliberate on the role of the Lokayukta in promoting transparency, accountability, and good governance. The conference seeks to explore the evolving legal framework, practical challenges, and future reforms needed to strengthen this vital anti-corruption institution. It encourages critical discussion, scholarly paper presentations, and exchange of ideas to enhance understanding of constitutional ethics and integrity in public administration.

ABOUT DR. RML COLLEGE (1986)

Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia College of Law (1986) is a premier institution committed to excellence in legal education and research. The college strives to cultivate analytical thinking, ethical values, and social responsibility among its students. With a blend of academic rigor and practical exposure, RML College equips future lawyers with the knowledge and skills required to serve the cause of justice. The institution regularly organizes seminars, conferences, and legal awareness programs to promote dialogue on contemporary legal issues and to strengthen the rule of law in society.

ABOUT VAKIL PAATHASHALA

Vakil Paathashala is an academic initiative dedicated to bridging the gap between theoretical legal education and practical legal training. It serves as a dynamic platform for law students, academicians, and legal practitioners to engage in discussions, workshops, and training sessions on emerging areas of law. The initiative focuses on skill enhancement, professional ethics, and holistic development of budding lawyers. Through seminars, Faculty Development Programs, and collaborative events, Vakil Paathashala continues to promote innovation in legal pedagogy and foster a culture of continuous learning in the legal fraternity.
